About this book

This book is written by Elements Assessment Behaviour Consulting.

Elements Assessment Behaviour Consulting is also called EABC.

This book is written so service users know how EABC works and what rules are followed

- A service user is a person who chooses to get support from EABC

About EABC

EABC helps service users live

happy

healthy lives

By

decreasing behaviours of concern,

and increasing skills

Behaviours of concern are actions that might not be safe or healthy

EABC uses positive behavior support

Positive behavior support means changing things to help a person feel better

Positive behaviour support also means fewer or no restrictive practices

Restrictive practices are things that stop people from doing what they want

- For example, if a person is kept in a locked room

Everyone has rights, like

- The right to be safe

- The right to be happy

- The right to choose

EABC respects people's rights, whether they are a:

- Service user

- Child

- Aboriginal person

- Person who speaks a different language

Who can give positive behaviour support?

Only people who are registered are allowed to give positive behaviour support

Registered means checked and approved

- All EABC practitioners are registered to give positive behaviour support
- A practitioner is a worker who provides positive behaviour support

Types of support EABC can give

Assessment

- An assessment is a report about the person, their needs, and their behaviour
- A risk assessment is a report about everyone's safety.

Behaviour Support Plan

- A behaviour support plan lists the things people are going to do to make things better

Teaching the person and others what they can do differently

Fees

EABC is paid for services by the National Disability Insurance Scheme, also called the NDIS

- The NDIS provides funding to support people who have a disability

The NDIS pays

- $222.99 per hour for positive behaviour support
- $222.99 per hour for a behaviour support plan and training

Hours

EABC practitioners usually work between 9am and 5pm on weekdays. Appointments outside of these times can be arranged if they are needed
